HOSPITALIZATION-SURGICAL BENEFITS AND LIFE INSURANCE APPLICATION PERIOD

1. During the period 1 through 31 October 1956 (1 October through 30 November for field employees) the Government Employees Health Association, Inc. (GEHA) will have its annual application period for Hospitalization and Surgical Benefits Insurance and United Benefit Life Insurance Company Group Term Life Insurance. During this period staff employees, staff agents, contract employees, and military personnel on detail to the Agency may purchase this insurance without regard to physical condition and with no waiting period, even for maternity benefits.

2. Other insurance plans available at any time as well as during this special period are as follows:

- (a) WAEPA (War Agencies Employees Protective Association) Group Term Life Insurance. A satisfactory physical examination may be required for this if the medical history so indicates.
- (b) Income Replacement Insurance which provides an income in case of disability and which is issued to preferred risks only.
- (c) Specified Diseases Insurance which offers protection against costs of polio and eight other diseases.
- (d) Travel-Matic Insurance which offers insurance protection against injury or death on any common carrier, anywhere in the world.
- (e) Air Flight Trip Insurance which offers insurance protection against injury or death for a one way or round trip by air to any place in the world via MATS or scheduled airlines.

3. The GEHA booklets describing the foregoing insurance in detail are being sent during the week beginning 24 September 1956 to each administrative officer for distribution to each departmental and
